MusicFest Fair Trade Principals

Vancouver Island MusicFest strives to be a good global citizen and to support fair trade principles wherever possible. For the past several years we have required that all items sold at the Festival be sourced from a fair trade market. We were pleased to discover that most of the vendors were already following Fair Trade Principals so it was a very easy transition for the Festival. As such, MusicFest craft vendors must demonstrate in their application that they follow fair trade principles in their purchasing. These are summarized as:

- Producers and artisans receive a fair price for their products that provides them a stable living wage.
- Buyers and producers trade under direct long-term relationships.
- Producers have access to financial and technical assistance.
- Sustainable, healthy and safe production techniques are encouraged.

Recyclable Materials

In our continuing effort to "green" the Festival, MusicFest has established initiatives including:

- Comprehensive composting and recycling of all site waste.
- Replacement of kitchen plastics with starch based and paper based bio-degradable alternatives. It is therefore mandatory for all food vendors to use recyclable or compostable serving containers and utensils to serve their meals.
- "Recyclables" will also include - plastics/tin, refundable plastic soft drink containers, compost/paper and cardboard/paper from their vending operations. See: Information for food vendors).
- We want to ensure that all our vendors are on board. Therefore, MusicFest food vendors must provide a copy of their recycle/composting plan with their application (See Green Questionnaire attached)
- Since 2009 our festival has been a glass bottle and a water bottle-free event. MusicFest will meet the requirement for water for patrons by providing a permanent water station in the food vendor area plus mobile water wagons manned by MusicFest volunteers.

For more information go to www.islandmusicfest.com

Food Booths

BC Fire Code Requirements

The following is a letter from the Courtenay Fire Department outlining their guidelines for all food booths.

One of the responsibilities of the Courtenay Fire Department is to ensure public safety in all areas where people may gather.

From this point forward, any event where cooking is taking place, we are requesting that each food booth meet the following requirements of the British Columbia Fire Code:

- 1) Any food booth that produces grease laden vapour as part of their cooking process shall have a NFPA 96 compliant suppression system installed and serviced.*
- 2) Any food booth that produces grease laden vapour as part of their cooking process shall have a K Class fire extinguisher mounted in an accessible location within the booth. Proof of a current fire extinguisher service must also be provided at the time of your event.*
- 3) Any cooking process that involves the use of wood fired ovens outside of the food booth is not permitted to be used in accordance with the City of Courtenay Fire Protective Services Bylaw /2556, 2008. Please note that having one of these under a tent still would be considered to be an outdoor fire and as such is prohibited.*
- 4) All food booths, regardless of their cooking processes are required to have one fire extinguisher meeting a minimum 2A-10B:C rating mounted in an accessible location within the booth. Proof of a current fire extinguisher service must also be provided at the time of your event.*

Please advise the vendors of these requirements and include this condition in their agreement. Any vendor that does not meet these British Columbia Fire Code regulations at the time of our inspection will not be permitted to operate.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me at 250-334-2513.

Yours Sincerely,

*Kurt MacDonald
Deputy Fire Chief*
